Teen Camp Finland Behavior Agreement

We all agree, children, teens and adults, to treat each other with kindness and respect - in both actions and words. Teens will model this behavior for each other. We agree to take good care of the buildings, grounds and equipment at the Clair Nelson Center, Base Camp, buses and any off-site locations. We will participate in the roles we are assigned when arriving at Camp without being asked repeatedly. We will all work together to make and help enforce Camp rules and participate in generating solutions to issues that may arise. And against all odds we will have fun! In the case of extreme rebellion of the rules you have agreed to, we may have to call home and have you picked up.

I understand the stuff I just read and the possible consequences:
